Wilson, English course of the "Woodworth Ritem," shortly after I had advertised my "FLATENT STATIONARY CUTTER, PLANING, TONOGUEING, AND GROOVING MACHINE," throughout the United States: "PLANING MACHINES.

"I take this method of answering the frequent inquiries, by letter and otherwise, as to my opinion upon the various notices through the papers, of the Simionary Knith Pauling Machines attempted to be palmed off upon several persons ignorant of their true worth. I would state for the information of the enquirers that they will find substantially the machine now offered by weveral pretending inventors, discribed in the 16th volume of the Repertory of Arts, invented by Samuel Benthan, in the year 1701. A life machine was patented in this country by one Kugler, some sitteen years disce, and another one put up by Athert. Richineway patented in this country by one Kugler, some sitteen years disce, and another one put up by Athert. Richineway parts of West Troy, N. Y., and abundated about the same time. It ought to safisfy the public to knowthat after fifty eight perses experimenting upon these machines, no one in use is of any value for the purposes contemplated.

I will furnish a Stationary Knith Machine equal to any now in use, or to any offered by the pretending inventors, at the cost of the machine and five per cent for my trouble.

May 19, 1949.

I deep that any person ever saw or heard of such a machine as within any devices or wheard of such a machine and the person. Sail medicing well and any claim of the property of the same. Sail medicing well as and the cost of the machine and five person. Sail medicing well as any claim of the same. Sail medicing well as a claim of the person. May 19, 1819.

I denythat any person ever saw or hearl of such a machine on a mine until I invented the same. Sail machine may operated in the month of August, 1518, and no machine he fore this could do so much work and do it as well as mine. In reply to the above adverticenent, and in order that the public may be assured that I mean wind fast, I will offer to piedge ONE THOUSAND DOLLANS against an equal smount from said Wisson, that ONE of my machines will plane, or plane, tongue and groove with less power, as much tumber in the exme time, and lot it as well, or better than TWO of the "Woodworth" machines. The trait to be made at my Steam Mill, Border St, East Docton, May, or at such other place of the trait of the mide at my Steam Mill, Border St, East Docton, May, or at such other place of the trait of the mide at my Steam Mill, Border St, East Boston, May, or at such other place of the Woodworth of the St. August 20, 1851-dly East Beston, Mass.

JOHN DWIGHT & COS SODA SALERATUS

J. N. BONESTEEL'S NEW CHEAP CASH STORE! THE attention of the public has already been called be that BEAUTIPUL STOKE, corner of East Water and Michigan streets, known as the PHOENIX BUILD-ING, which magnifecent apartment is now occupied by the undersigned, in order to keep pace with the times, and supply the many wants of his numerous customers, and is daily being filled with an immense stock of Entirely New & Fashlonable Cheap Goods,

Which, from his long experience in the trade, enables him to select with direct reference to the wants of his various customers. Having facilities at least equal to his competitors for purchasing Goods, he doubts not but that the Quarry, Style and Pauts, coupled with unremitting exceptions on his part, will enable him to SELL and gratify the wishes of adhering, as formerly, to the One Price Cash System, Relying rather upon LARGE SALES and SMALL PRO-FITS, than the old and present system of too many, whose motto is the reverse. Those who are in want of CHEAP FALL & WINTER GOODS. EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

Madison, February 6th, 1852. A bill to quiet and confirm tax titles, which came up in committee of the whole yesterday aftermoon, elicited a very interesting discussion as to its sufficiency for the purpose. The subject one which is of importance nearly or quite equal to that of a general banking system. The evilof the present loose system, or no-system, are felt in every county, city, town and village in the State. Instead of being the best, tax-titles are the poorest possible titles, and are made the subject of litigation, corruption, bargaining and shaving everywhere, by those who are curious enough to examine into the times of sales, and shrewd enough to calculate on the turning of a penny. honest or otherwise. The State Treasury is kept in a state of safe emptiness constantly by the negbeet or refusal of non-resident and wealthy land owners to pay their taxes, and the papers are hawked about in the market everywhere. Those willing to pay up promptly are obliged to suffer annually the levy of additional taxes to make up for the delinquencies of others. It is high time that a stringent law, equal and just in its provisions, should be passed, settling this vexed question. The bill was referred back to the judiciary committee in the afternoon.

The committee on claims reported this more in favor of paying the balance of Mr. Sholes claim against the State for printing the Revised Statutes, amounting to $3280. Thave never been satisfied of the propriety or constitutionality of giving the contract to Mr. Sholes, who was then: member of the Legislature; and, if I remember correctly, the Supreme Court only gave judgment in his favor, because the State could not be permitted to escape liability through a contract made by its own wrong. The balance claimed has undergone the careful examination of the committee at the head of which stands a gentleman who i not disposed to throw away any money, and bill was reported providing for its payment.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate by Mr. Palmer, providing for a loan of not over $10,000 of the School Fund to the Fox River Improvement, receiving as security the certificates rayable out of the fund, the loan to be repaid within two years out of the proceeds of the sale of the lands. I doubt very much whether the bill can be got through the Senate; certainly I hope not. I am certain that it will meet with no favor in the House. It does not seem right to hazard the School Fund in any way; it does not seem right to involve it in the doubts and difficulties which at present hang around that work; and above all, it is folly to talk about the ability of that fund to repay a loan within two years, when it is notorious that the Improvement is very heavily in debt-to an amount far beyond the value of the lands in market. As was stated by the report of the joint committee, through Dr Peak, there is now due and owing on the Im provement the sum of $274,000.

The House voted this morning to purchase 5000 copies of the Statistical chart published by the Argus. I think I sent you a copy. For conven ience of reference on some subjects it is very good but, to judge by the anxiety of some members to possess themselves of it, one would suppose it to be William's Register and Greely's Almanae combined. At 2e each, the Argus has made a very pretty thing of it, in disposing of nearly 10,000 copies. It is a "fat take." It has cost the Legislature three times the value of the paper to dis-cuss the question, and it was finally passed to

The Memorial to Congress for a limitation of the powers of the U. S. District Court in this State was this morning referred to the Judiciary Committee. I have sent a copy of it for examinatio Not being a lawyer, I do not pretend to know whether that Court possesses too much power or not, but I have always been under the impression that it gave to saitors the quickest possible mean of settling their difficulties, and much more ready means than are provided by our state courts. I have never heard of the successful party in a suit there scokling at its possession of too much power. although unsuccessful parties, doubtless, would like the power of appeal in all cases, up and up, to the very Court of Heaven, and higher if it were possible. Perhaps, however, good reasons may be shown for the passage of the memorial.

In committee this afternoon, the Senate inter vention resolutions coming up in their order on the file, they were laid aside at the suggestion of Mr. Shafter, as likely to elicit debate. Mr. Shafter signified his dissent to some of the doctrines set forth in the resolutions, and his intentions to give his reasons therefor. Dr. Hoyt also stated that he intended to have a "pop" at the resolutions. We shall have a lively debate on the subject, and as this is a House of unusual good sense, we may fairly expect an unusually sensible expression of opinion on the subject of inter-

The bill to provide for a change of venue in case of alleged interest or prejudice on the part of the judge was reported from the committee of the whole without amendment.

An enquiry was made from the com, on claims, relative to the constitutionality of passing bills appropriating money for more than one subject. The committee hold, and it is to be hoped that an examination will prove them to be correct, that there is no necessity of making each single appropriation a separate bill. Much unnecessary printing, and much time, will be saved to the Legislature. It is certain that the last Legislature in many instances, passed such bills.

The Washington County delegation has been hard at work during the most of the day, in trying to work out a compromise bill for location of the county seat. They came in, about 5 P. M. looking pale and haggard from their encounter with the monstrous matter. They reported a compromise bill, which was read twice, and will pass, if the creature does not get a fit before to

UNITED STATES COURTS .- In the U. S. Senates

on the 29th ult., Mr. Bradeury of Maine, pursuant to notice, introduced a bill to alter and amend the Judicial system of the United States, which s understood to have the concurrence of the Sureme Court. Its scope and provisions were thus aplained by the Senator who introduced the bill: Mr. B. said: As this is an important matter, I desite to state two or three of the more prominent provisions of the bill. It proposes to confer upon the district courts of the Unite States the powers and jurisdiction now exercised by the circuit courts in the several circuits. It proposes to create a court of appeals, consisting of the justice of the Supreme Court of the United States assigned to the circuit where the court is held, and the several district judges of said circuit. This court of appeals shall have jurisdiction in all cases brought from the district courts thereto, in the same manner that they are now brought thereform to the Supreme Court of the U. S. It authorizes appeals and writs of error from the decisions of the court of appeals to the Supreme Court of the U. S. in cases where the matter in controversy exceeds in amount five thousand dollars, and where is called in question the constitutionality of a law of Congress or of any State; and it also makes provision for California and Oregon.

The bill was then read the first and second times by unanimous consent, and referred to the Committee on the judiciary.

MILWAUREE HYDRAULIC WORKS,-Notwith Minwauker Hydralite Works.—Notwith-standing the intense stringency in the besiness of our sister city, Milwaukee, resulting from failures of crops and neary taxation for city improvements, its citizens have determined to take upon them-selves the additional burden of building hydraulic works, on an extensive scale, to supply the city with an abundance of pure water. A contract for this purpose has been entered into with responsi-ble parties from Cincinnati, and they are to be commenced forthwith.—Cheago Tribane.

Messes. Editors :

It is said that seventeen of Kossuth's progeni ors have been executed for opposing desperie rule. Those examples are not scarce in some countries of Europe. There is in our city a Gernan citizen and a well known one too, whose randfather was executed for advocating freedom and humanity in 1734; two of his uncles fought and bled for the French republic and agains Prussian despotism; one of these uncles had in 849 four sons and one son-in-law, as officers in Kossuth's army; the son-in-law died on the battle ground; three of his sons were seized, and one of them is now put in irons at Arad for eighteen years; the others both were "assented" i. e.forced serve as privates in the army. Another of his uncles had eight sons—two of them fought gal-lantly at Vienna in Oct. 1849; the elder was ounded-the younger escaped to Hungary after he capitulation of Vienna, but was never more heard of. Three other sons of the same father fought at Dresden in May 1849; one of them is a fugitive now in the State of N. Y.; the son and e son-in-law of a third uncle were implicated likewise in the revolution of Saxony; the former s yet in States prison, the other a fugitive in the State of Mn.; and that citizen, who is living here, arrowly escaped from prison, where he was to end many years for having advocated the cause f freedom and humanity. Thus sixteen mem-ers of one family were combatants, and sufferers or freedom-three of them martyrs, and three others now living under the protection of the stars and stripes. If all the other families of France, Germany, Hungary and Italy would have chaved in the same way, there is no doubt, Euope should be free now.

For the Sentinel Sacred Music Society. Messes, Editors :

At the Sacred Music Society's Concert last Fri day evening, I had the pleasure of listening to the member's concert, and was much surprised at the excellent execution and correct tone given in their choruses. Truly our Milwaukee citizens have proved themselves to be worthy of the first rank the Musical army. I had always been enraptured by the performance of the Germans, but was in the dark concerning the Sacred Music Sonety. They certainly will not suffer by comparon. I understand that both Societies join to give Concert on Thursday evening at Young's Hall when they all sing together. WHAT RAIL ROADS DO FOR CITIES.—The fel-Gazette there says it is the desire not only of the lowing article, from the Detroit Free Press of the Whigs of Ohio, but of the party generally through- 3d instant, contains some facts well worth the atntion of our own citizens, and especially of realestate owners:

Our Cleveland neighbors are congratulating themselves upon the rapid growth and increasing prosperity of their town, and the rise in real estate prosperity of their town, and the rise in real estate there, owing to the recent concentration of rail-toads and plank roads at that point. This is all true and very well; but we are not disposed to let our sister city think that she alone of the lake cities is 'lengthening her cords and strengthening her stakes?' Nowhere has the value of property risen more steadily or more rapidly than in Detroit for the last five years. Lots which five years since, could be had for $75 per foot front, are now eagerly sought after at $300 per foot. On Jefferson and Woodward avenues, in this city, the rise has been greatest, although all over the town property has doubled in value almost within the period mentioned. Owners on the last named avenue now ask $100 per foot for lots anywhere below Grand River street, owing to the plank road thoroughfare established there. And on Jefferson avenue, within a reasonable distance of King's corner, lots are valued equally high.

Shocking Murder near Philadelphia.

A young man named Jacob Lehman, the son of a Jew pedlar in Philadelphia, has been missng ever since the 8th of January. His horribly sutilated body was found on the 30th ult., in the Delaware river. The shocking details are given n the North American of Saturday, 39st :

in the North American of Saturday, 36st;

Some little girls playing near the coal-wharf, No. 14, above the Iron works of Mesers. I. P. Morris, discovered frozen in the ice, in the flats on the river at that point, three sacks, close together. These children informed four young men who were chopping wood on the shore, and they cut out the bags with their axes, and partially opened the seeks, when portions of human remains became visible. The suspicion at once flashed upon their minds, in consequence of recent remorred apprehensions as to the fate of the missing pedlar boy. Jacob Lehman, that his body had been brought to light. Hundreds of spectators soon collected, and all arrived at the same conclusion. A messenger was dispatched to Kensington for Doctor Goldsmith, the Coroner, and by the time that functionary reached the scene, not less than 1,500 persons were assembled. The sacks were removed to the hotel of Capt. George McCullen, on Richmond-st., near Huntingdon, where a jury of inquest was empannelled. Upon examining the sacks, a most bloody and horrible spectacle was presented. The stoutest nerves could not view it without a shudder, and the bare thought of it caused the warm blood to run cold, and the heart to sicken. In one sack was a head, and legs, and feet; in another a thorax, arms, and hands, with the viscen of the chest; and in the heart to sicken. In one suck was a head, and heart to sicken. In one suck was a head, and legs, and feet; in another a thorax, arms, and hands, with the viscem of the chest; and in the third the lower portion of the trunk, and the hips and thichs, with the viscem of the abdominal region. The portions of the body in the different sacks, were, write parts of the clothing of the deceased, fixed and field together, so as to occupy the least space. The head had been severed from the trunk, the body hewn in twain, the legs chopped off at the knees, and the feet partly cut from the legs, at the ancies, so they might be bent upwards. There had also been an attempt to cut the thorax in two lengthwise. On the top of the head were two frightful wounds, fracturing the shull. The nose was likewise broken and the eyes blackened. On putting the mutilated parts of the body together, and laying the whole out in the Coroner's nee-hox, they formed the perfect corpse of a youth about 17 years old—the exact age of the lad Lehman. The hair was like his.—The body, furthermore, corresponded to his size, height and general appearance. The clothing, too, was of the same description as his. Indeed, no doubt whatever remained that the corps was that of young Lehman.

oubt whatever remained that the corpse was tha of young Lehman.

of young Lehman.

The distracted father of the unfortunate boy was present, but he was so overwhelmed as to be incapable of affording any satisfaction as to the identity of his murdered son. The clothing was cut and torn into fragments, and all the buttons were removed from the great coat. Around the pieces of the body, both inside and outside of the sacks, were goese wings and feathers. In each sack was a heavy paving stone. No developments have been made by the testimony beyond vague suspicion. The police were on the alert, but no clae whatever to the inhaman and fiendish perpetrators of the alarming deed of blied had been obtained. The victim of the diabolical tragedy was the son of Aaron Lehman, a German Jew pedlar, residing at No. 497 North Seventh street, above Franklin Avenue, Penn District. When last seen he had with him about $269 worth of common watches, jewelry, and fancy articles, which comprised almost the entire stock in trade of his father. There has never been a parallel to this monstrous homicide in the annals of crime in Philadelphia. It even exceeds in strocity the murder of the Bartle family in Roxborough. At 1 o'clock the Jury rendered the following verdict: "That the lad, Jacob Lehman, cane to his death at the hand or bands of some person or persons to the Jury unknown."

From the Springfield Republicar Message from Edgar A. Poe.

If the "spiritual writing manifestations" are a delasion, they are getting to be something more—omething approaching a very ingenious persistent and miscrapulous attempt to pain an utter fraudipon the creditlous, by men of rare power and genius. From recent developments in this quarter, we are led inevitably, by the plainest deductions of reason and common sense, to the conclusion that there is little or no self-deception in the natter. Either the manifestations are of the zenso the conclusion of the conclusion that there is little or no self-deception in the matter. Either the manifestations are of the general nature that they chain to be, viz:—those of other than incarnate intelligences, or they are the result of a studied deception, and guilty collusion, unequaled in the world's history.

The last number of the Spirit Messenger contains a message and a poem, purporting to have issued from the spirit of Edgar A. Poe. The poem, and the prose message introducing it, challenge attention, at once, by their intrinsic literary merit, and by a nanychously close allience to the style of versification, thought and genins of the author from whose spirit they are alleged to have communicated. They were communicated through the "writing medium," Lydik Tenny.—We ask for these productions a close examina—u by all who have studied the cravit genius of Poe, who, whether couch had or wild the extra contains the content of t who, whether good, bad or indifferent, as a writes, never had a parallel.

We may over-rate these productions, yet while We may over-rate these productions, yet while we are aware of certain limpings in the measure, they appear to us to be steeped in the very spirit of Poe, whether they emanated from his spirit or not. The allusion to the "hearful spirit-spasm." a phrase nost felicious in describing Poe's life of darkness; the "hideous but alluring fancies" in which he ground and on which he gloated, the incidental, hardly perceptible, allusion to that one soul that haunted all his poems—the "Lost Lenous"—all tend to show that it is the work of a rate master of deception, a most thorough adeptin art, or that it is precisely what it claims to be. We present these productions without further comment, simply remarking that regarded as a emiosity in literature, we have not seen its equal in many a day.

There to me and I will tell you of beautiful things—o thoughts both which and tender, both soothing and turnuls tous which dwelf in a human heart. A question which has more didentially of the limit of the limit in the human of maximation is—for what was it implanted in the human or sanitation is—What was my own; for a worter rushing within itself, upon whose brink! I cov'd seem to stand and equivals was being syndhowed and reproduced—thorus, single yellowed to be called the covider when the second of this crosses current merced.

O, the dark, the awful chasm!
O, the fearful spirit-spasm!
Wrought by unresisted passion,
In my heart. Fancies hideous, but alluring, Love pure, but unenduring, From time to time securing Each a part. Then embraced by seraph bands— Drawn by tender loving hunds— From those treacherous batchit smile From those treacherous batchit smile Of despair. How my soul was waked to gladiest And cair off the dearlening sadiest And the soul-devouring madness. Withing there. Then came dreams so soft and holy, Over roses unmerring starty,
With rocest mainer strating long,
With rocest mainer strating long,
I have I hear—I hear for calling,
In tones no more of walling,
But in dewy sweetness falling—
Where—Up here? "Here—up here!
Thanks, Great Heaven, I am stronger—
Slave to earthly tust no longer.
Ann free.
O, this lightness! O, this brightness!
O, this pure and heavenly this trightness.
Freed from earth and sin forever,
Death can us no more diseaser,
Humbly thank Great Gel together,

TELEGRAPH PTEMS. CLAY AND KOSSUTIL

Washingron, February 3.

The Intelligencer of this a.m. contains the official report of the interview between Kossath and Henry Clay. Mr. C., after kindly receiving him, addressed him for 20 minutes, reviewing the policy of Intervention—saying we could effect nothing and, after failing, the European despots would combine against us, and tell us that they were but following our example—that America should adhere to its old policy and principles—keep her lamps burning brighdy, and in a quarter of a century farnish an example which reason cannot resist.

He regarded France voluntarily putting on the yoke of despetism as a significant warning to America that Europe did not want liberal institutions.

Kossath replied, but did not attempt to contradict Mr. Clay's doctrine, merely giving facts relative to the position of Europe.

Mr. Clay, at parting, said—God bless you and your family—God bless your country, may she yet be free."

Kossuth at parting, placed Clay's hand upon his heart with much emotion, and said "Thank you, honored sir; I will puny for you every day that your health may be restored, and that God may prolong your life. Washington, February 3.

The London correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, writes that it is impossible for Lord John Russell to retain his present position with his colleagues. All is uncertain and unsatisfactory. Trade is depressed and enterprise dampened in every way. The neglect of the owners of the ill-fated Amazon steamer, in not providing for the safety of the passengers on board, is fully proved. A barque recently dragged her anchors in the British Channel, and they came in contact with the wires of the submarine telegraph, but such was their strength, that the bark lost both her anchors and cable.

Money and Business.

Since our last, the inclination of the money market to ease and abundance has been marked and rapid. Money is more plentiful from day to day, and the street rates for rood securities are about as low as they usually attain. The very bost paper passes readily at 75 to 8 per cent, and the broiders are borrowing at 9, to let again at 12, on Compared, Ogdensburg, and the like. The quantity of business paper on the market is very limited. Stock operations and corporation borrowers sustain the larger portion of the denoted. Within the week, two of the largest railroad borrowers law declined to pay more than 10 per cent, and are anticipating a still further reduction of rates. "The invest from California by the Prometheus, amounties the approach of another large lot of gold dust, at a time when our experits of speech star fallon off—when our exton is more rapidly coming forward—when money is easy in Europe, and the supplies of coin in France and Englandare larger than ever—and when, above all, the New York banks, with a slightly increased loan, are holding three millions of dollars more than they held in September. These latter, we hope, may continue to exhibit the decline moticed since the 1st of January.

Kossuth in Columbus Ohio.

Rossuth in Columbus Oblo.

Columbus, Feb. 4.

Gov. Kossuth arrived here about six o'clock on an extra train from Delaware, where he had stopped to address theelitzens. An immense concurse of people were waiting to receive him at this place, and as the train entered the depot, the artiflery Ared a salute of 'thirteen guns, and loud, long and enthusiastic cheers were given for the illustrious Hungarian. He entered a carriage with the Governor, Licut, Governor, and was excerted to the Neil House by a procession of the firemen and military, and large numbers of citizens on foot, horseback, and in carriages. At least 5,000 people were assembled in front of the Neil House, and the balconics and the windows were filled with lodies.

A snow-Storm set in here last evening, and has continued to the present time. The snow is about six inches deep. At Newburyport and Portland the snow has fallen to the depth of eight or ten inches to-day, is still falling.

A despatch from Burlington, Vi., states that an oil raill, situated near Wincoekt Falls Village bridge tegether with two adjoining grist-mills, a wagon shop and cooper's shop, were totally destroyed by Bre on Friday last. The sufferers were H W, Catlin, Wincoekt Mill; Match & Blithon, Mark Willard, and Wardwell & Smith, Mr. Catlin was the principal owner of the buildings, and his loss is $35,000—one half insured. The Wincoeki Mill Co, is insured $15,000 in the Hartford Company's office.

Boston, Jan. 31.

The Anti-Slavery Convention was occupied vesterday, with attacks upon Kossuth, Garrison being the chief speaker. The great source of tribulation among them, has been the firm perversity of Abby Folson, whose garrulity was such that the police were ordered to keep her out of the building. This caused a sort of internal war, many members standing up for woman's rights.

Rev. Daniel Foster said he hoped every fugi-tive would arm himself to shoot any person who attempted his arrest, officer or not. He stood there a rebel against the law and against the con-
